

Project Ghillie

WORKING AGAINST POACHING AND FISHERY RELATED CRIME

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS SORT OF THING ON YOUR RIVERBANK?

Let us know about poaching and fishery crime in your area.

You can call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111

or email the Metropolitan Police Wildlife Crime Unit on wildlife@met.police.uk

Project Ghillie

Project Ghillie is the multi-agency response to the growing trend of poaching, fish theft and other fishery related crime.

The Metropolitan Police Service, in partnership with the Environment Agency, Angling Trust, Cefas, Thames Water and the charity Get Hooked on Fishing are tackling the issue.

We need your help to reduce crime and anti-social behaviour on London's rivers and canals.

We need you to report anyone you see fishing illegally, stealing tackle or removing fish from the water.

Remember to tell us:

- Where you saw the offence committed
- When you saw it
- What the person looked like and was wearing
- What method of fishing was being used

You can call:

- The Environment Agency hotline with information on 0800 80 70 60
- Or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111
- Or email the Metropolitan Police Wildlife Crime Unit on wildlife@met.police.uk

Remember if your call is an emergency always call 999

TOTAL POLICING

